2. Met with Messrs. Abramovitz, Amory, the Library Consultants, and others to discuss the arrangement of the Library in the new building. It was agreed that the objectives which the Library Consultants desired to effect could be accomplished without doing away with the court. Max Abramovitz is to do some sketches on the detailed arrangement and have them ready for the Consultants to consider next Thursday, the 16th.

We also had considerable discussion about the necessity for the submission of the DD/I space allocations at a very early date. Mr. Abramovitz indicated that he was already slowed down considerably and I emphasized to the DD/I people that they and they alone were responsible for this holdup. I hope that we will get better cooperation in the future, and I think we will.

3. Talked to prior to his departure for He seemed to be 25X1A6a in good spirits and at long last said that he was looking forward to the overseas duty with considerable enthusiasm. I told him that Jim Garrison had advised me recently that he had felt that he, had done an excellent job as Chief of the Procurement Division. This obviously pleased him. I also told him that the Inspector General had completed his investigation of the charges against him in connection with the windfall profits of the etc., and had given him a clean bill of health.

4. reported that he had been unsuccessful in locating a job for Lou but that Matt Baird and were interested in him in connection with their Management Course where they have vacancies for a grade GS-15 and a GS-14. He requested my approval to have take the Management Course which starts on Mon-
